Monkonmlah Darlington Poure

Future Cybersecurity Professional | IT Student at Graphic Era University | Certified in Network Admin & Graphic Design.
Dehradun, Uttarakhand, India

Summary

I'm an Information Technology undergraduate at Graphic Era University with a strong passion for cybersecurity, and technology at large.

I've built a solid foundation in network administration and graphic design through certification programs, and I enjoy combining technical knowledge with creative problem-solving. Whether it's optimizing networks or designing digital content, I'm always eager to learn, explore, and improve.

Currently, I'm preparing to pursue a master's degree in cybersecurity, where I aim to specialize in protecting systems, networks, and data from emerging threats. My goal is to become a skilled and ethical cybersecurity professional, capable of securing digital infrastructure and helping organizations stay safe in a connected world.

I'm open to internships, mentorship, and collaborative opportunities that will help me grow in IT and cybersecurity. Let's connect!
